ANNUAL EDUCATORS CONFERENCE

Sponsorship Opportunities to Support Local Teachers

Every day, teachers impact our students' lives for the better, helping them achieve academic success. On April 29-30, 2022, Teach Indy will host its Annual Educators Conference — a virtual event — to support, develop, and recognize high-quality educators in our communities.

In partnership with the College Football Playoffs, Mayor's Office for Education Innovation, Indianapolis Public Schools (IPS), The Mind Trust, and other key stakeholders, the Teach Indy Educators Conference will provide teachers with:

- ★ Professional development workshops
- ★ Access to personal and professional support
- ★ Robust teacher recognition and awards
- ★ Networking opportunities
- ★ Opportunities for teachers to lead sessions
- ★ Conference giveaways

Become a Sponsor

By sponsoring the Teach Indy Educators Conference, your organization will help foster excellence in local teaching and support the educational community of Indianapolis. Sponsors will be recognized during the event, in marketing materials, on social media, and at teachindynow.org.
